The "Fresh Meat", oops, I mean Freshmen finally figure out what a pep rally is for, although a few still look confused.

The Drill Team is showing off all of its' best moves for the school.

Hmmmm ... I wonder if they even know what a pep rally is?

YOU'RE NOW IN WARRIOR TERRITORY!!!!!!!

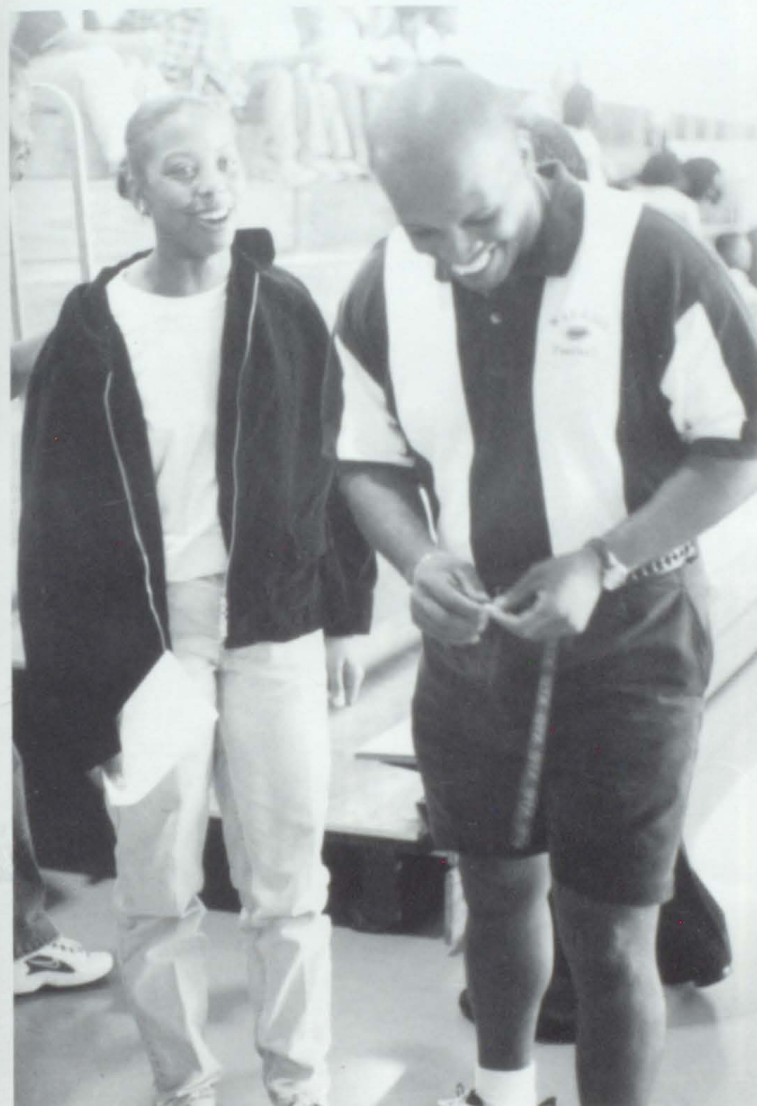

Junior, Blake Hobbs, and Sophomore, Chad Fincher, are showing off a little more than their school spirit.

Well at least we know that a few juniors are cheering on our team while others are preoccupied.

Cheerleaders gather around to show everyone that they have spirit.

Donna Cox says, "Put the bird back in the cage Blake!!" as he tries to show off that he is proud to be a junior.

LaGeanie Jones stands dumbfounded, wondering why Coach Oliver is laughing at her?

... And Have The Crown To Prove It!

"The crowning of the court was fun and exciting ... only I should have placed on the court. Although I feel that the judges' choices were very good."

Damien Hodges

"The homecoming events were nice and the choices they made were pretty good. My favorite part of Homecoming is the game though and I was very pleased that we won."

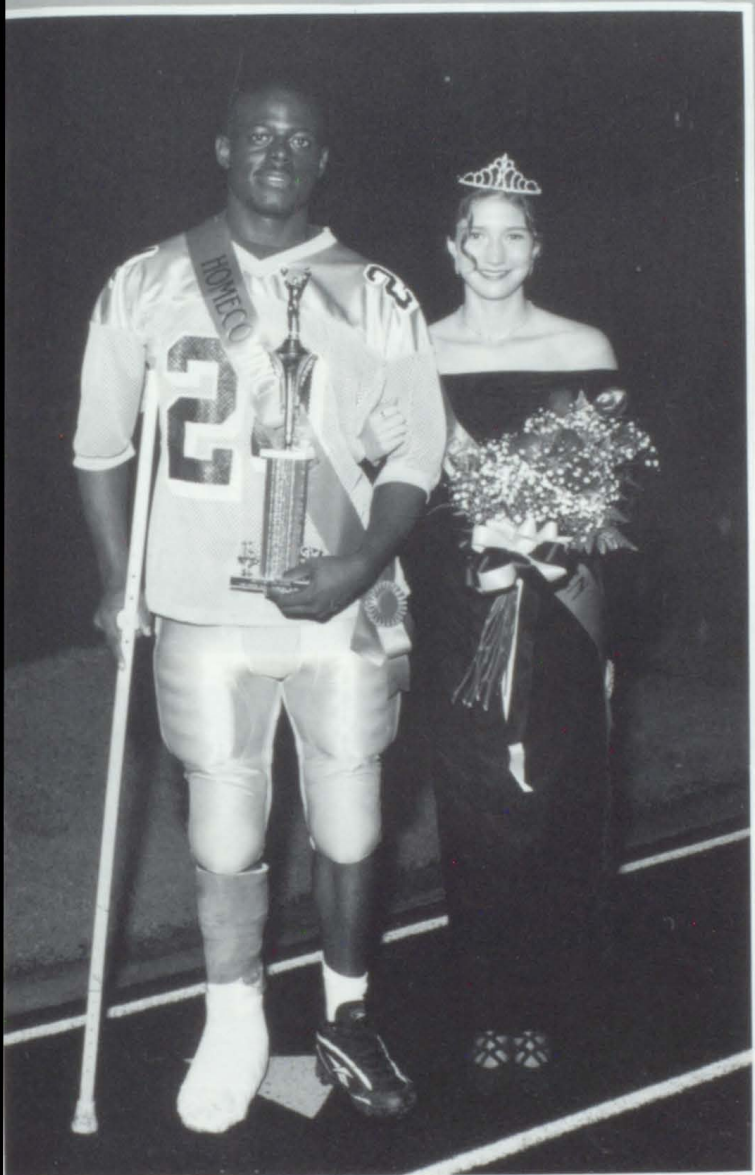

Marcus Pitts

"I think that the choices they made for King and Queen were excellent. The crowning events were very nice even though the weather wasn't great and everyone was rushed."

Chad Fincher

"I was really surprised with they called my name, I never really expected to get Queen. I couldn't have ran had my friends not been there to cheer me on all the way. Thanks Everyone!"

Jennifer Weldon

The Royal Family

The King and Queen stand with their court for a quick shot as the team returns to the field.

Put Your Dukes Up

The Queen's Friends, April Ogden and Amanda Hill fight over who gets to congratulate her first.

Long Live The King And Queen

Terrence Redmond and Jennifer Weldon pose for their picture as they are sworn into the royal family.

April Ogden, Paige Sanders and Nadia Heath are hittin' the waves as they are Surfin' in the U.S.A. for their dance routine.

Nadia Heath smiles as she was asked her semi-finalist question by Mary Therese.

Amanda Hill, Kizzy Armstrong, April Ogden, Dana Williams, and Paige Sanders are proudly marching and holding the Cherry Blossom flags during the opening routine.

Oh, Show me some leg! Amanda Hill is showing off more than her dance moves during her latin dance routine.

All of the Contestants line up for the judges to take one last look.

April Ogden during the crowning of the Queen, Ashley Gawder, that she has to look away to keep from crying. HA! HA!

Kizzy Armstrong and Dana Williams strut their stuff as they show off for the audience.

DeShanna Smith smiles with perfection as she "Boop Boop's" to Betty Boop.

Cherry Blossom Pageant

Seven of Southeast's Seniors shine in pink at the Cherry Blossom Pageant

Whether big or small all of the contestants gained something from entering the pageant. "I had the opportunity to meet new people from all over Macon that were my age," states April Ogden. "It helped me get closer to two of my best friends, Paige Sanders, and April Ogden," says Amanda Hill.

Other students learned some well reknown skills that may help them in the future. "I enjoyed learning proper manners for a first impression," replies DeShanna Smith. Dana Williams believes, "The Cherry Blossom Pageant taught me how to perform and act in related situations." "I learned how to perform in front of others, and to overcome my fears," stated Nadia Heath. Others just had fun and enjoyed the experience, "If you are a senior female and interested in pageants the Cherry Blossom Pageant is a great start," encourages Kizzy Armstrong. Paige Sanders says, "It was a very unique experience that I will probably never have again."
